

HEADLINERS

- Gary Clark, Jr.
June 12, 2024, 6:30 PM
Stone Pony Summer Stage
Anyone who has listened to a Gary Clark Jr. album or watched the four-time Grammy Award winner perform live knows that he's a gifted multi-instrumentalist, songwriter and performer.
- Band of Horses
June 13, 2024, 6:30 PM
Stone Pony Summer Stage
Band of Horses has often been billed as "alt-country," but that's not always a fully accurate label. There are hints of vintage influences like Eagles and Neil Young, but most of their songs are the sort of wistful-and-woeful, chugging choruses that beg for sing-alongs.
- Lake Street Dive
June 14, 2024, 6:30 PM
Stone Pony Summer Stage
Grab a seat for Lake Street Dive, the genre-defying band that can only be described as top-tier musicians having a blast playing the catchiest tunes you've ever heard. It's an easygoing, basement-couch vibe for deep cuts, fan favorites and even some works in progress.
- Bleachers
June 15, 2024, 2:00 PM
Stone Pony Summer Stage
Bleachers is an American rock band from New Jersey and the official stage name of songwriter and record producer Jack Antonoff. Bleachers' rock music is heavily influenced by the late '80s, early '90s, and the high school-based films of John Hughes while still using modern production techniques.

LOCAL VENUES

- Joe Miller, Mike Montrey, and Dave Vargo

Catch these three amazing singer-songwriters perform an exclusive North to Shore set together. With a focus on American roots/folk music, singer-songwriter Joseph Alton Miller strives to bridge the gap separating the many genres that make up the American sound. Mike Montrey Band's dynamic fusion of Americana Rock 'n Soul has been lighting up New Jersey, and far beyond for over a decade. Dave Vargo is an accomplished singer-songwriter and gifted guitarist from New Brunswick, New Jersey who embraces a unique blend of the Americana, country, rock and folk genres.

- Johnny Nameless

Johnny Nameless is a group from Seaside Heights, NJ with a genre-bending sound that casts shadows to vintage psych, new wave, surf, punk, glam, torch and blues. The group started in 2017 and recorded their first album Seaside Motel in 2019 followed by the EP, Here Come the Bugs in 2022 and their latest effort, The Border in The Mind in 2023.

Myster-E continues to teach and perform for diverse audiences from NJ to beyond, inspiring educating and entertaining through hip hop, rhythm applied poetry, spoken word and English language arts.
- Space and The Goodstock Jamband
Space by definition is expansive and free. This immense liberation is felt in her music with melodies that are uniquely universal. Space is a self-taught guitarist and singer-songwriter who has spiritually channeled her grandfather's, Raoul Cita of The Harptones doo-wop group, musical talents. Her sound is a soulful, funky R&B mix with influences by Lauryn Hill, Erykah Badu and Nina Simone. With the infusion all of these elements she maintains her own self-expression.
- The Mercury Brothers
Based out of Asbury Park, NJ, The Mercury Brothers bring an ethereal, raw live performance driven by a deep chemistry that reflects 15+ years of professional musicianship, playing hundreds of shows along the northeast coast of the US. Their sentimental, upbeat, abrasive and emotional soundscape spans beyond genre but relays a passionate, unrefined message of sincerity, love and struggle.
